THE POSTOFFICE. -Two or three times within. the past two months THE News has had occasion to mention instances of neglect on the part of the employees of the Postoffice Department, but another instance, more culpable than any before mentioned, has been brought to our notice. A'prominent business house in this city, on yesterday, was handed a letter written. in Walterboro' on the 10:h of July; another from New York, dated July 1; and two others from Baltimore, from two distinct parties, dated July 9. Nearly two months for a letter to come less than a hundred miles is quite a long time.

The Posimaster here should ascertain if, as alleged, the fault lies at the Charleston office. If so, he had better take stops to remedy it. The delay of a letter, for a few hours, may result in a serious loss to a merchant, and it i due to our citizens that the Postmaster should zaake a thorough investigation and inform them who are the parties to blame.

"MANY MERCHANTS" AND "NEW COTTON."-We published yesterday a letter from Florence signed "Many Merchants," containing the lollowing statement : In your columns of 25th instant, the sale of two bales of new cotton was reported to have been shipped from this place by A. W. Loynes, and consigned to Mr. A. J. Ealmas, and sold at $1 conts.

Allow us, the morehants of this place, to in-

Allow us, the morements of this place, to in-form you, and the readers of your paper, that there has not as yet been any new cotton ship-ped or bought in this place this season. The cotton alieded to was old cotton belonging to G. J. W. McCall, of this county, and sold as

As this statement was calculated to throw some blame upon the factor who sold the cotton, we made careful inquiry into the facts of the case, which are those : Mr. A. W. Loynes, of Florence, told Mr. Salinas some time ago that he would send him the first bale of new cotton which came into Florence. The two hales in dispute were shipped by Mr. Loynes to Mr. Salinas, who was advised by telegraph. Mr. Loynes did not, however, say in the dispotoh whether the cotton was old or new sampled by an experienced sempler, and pronounced to be new cotton. They were afterwards examined by one of the oldest cotton buyers in he city, who also pronounced them to be new cotton, and as new cotton they were sold. These are the facts, and they show that Mr. Salinas was ful y justified in selling the cotton as he di . ludeed, the whole matter lies between the seller and the buyer, both of whom are satisfied; and unless there is some personal spite in the matter, we see no reason why this "Many Merchants" should have been so eager to mike an unnecessary correction,

MERCANTILE PRINTING .- All kinds of mercantile printing, such as circulars, letter heads cards, bill heads, statements, &c., for count ing-rooms and offices, promptly executed in the neatest style and at the lowest rates for each, at THE NEWS JOB OFFICE, No. 149 East

New Corron .- We are informed that the first bale of new cotton shipped to this city, via the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, arrived on Friday last, and was consigned to Mr. James R. Pringle. It is a very fine staple and was grown by Messrs. Paul & Webb, of Beaufort County. The same cotton brought last season thirty-five cents in this market, when the ordinary cottons were worth twenty-four to twenty-five cents.

CRUMBS.—A charge of steeling a boat was preferred against Charles Carr by C. S. Wakefur and H. May, and heard before Magistrate Bunch yesterday. The accused was required to give $300 security to appear before the State Court for trial.

THE APPRAISEMENT OF REAL

The following bill was introduced by Alder man Voigt at the last meeting of the City BILL TO APPRAISE THE BATEABLE PROPERTY OF

THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, AND FOR OTHER

A BILL TO APPRAISE THE RATEABLE PROPERTY OF THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Whereas, The fundamental principal of justice to all, in the levying of taxes for the maintenance of government and good order, depends essentially upon equitable appraisement of all the rateable property of the community; and whereas it is known that great discrepancy now exists in the appraisement of real estate in the city, and to the end that the evil may be corrected and justice done:

1st. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Alderman of Charleston, in City Council assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, that a commission of three citizens be appointed by the Mayor and Committee on Assessment, one of whom shall be a carpenter, and another a brick mason, each of whom shall be known and approved as competent contractors and builders in this city for the last teuyears, and the other citizen to be of good experience in the general value of real estate and an owner thereof.

2d. That each ward shall elect by real estate owners thereon, two real estate owners thereof, who shall act as auxiliary appraisers for their respective wards, with those appointed by the city, the whole of whom shall be known as the appraisers of real estate for the City of Charleston for 1869-70, and their appraisement shall be conclusive, as to approximate value for taxution, 'till otherwise changed by law or ordinance.

31. The appraisement of all lots shall be as dinance.

3.1. The appraisement of all lote shall be as to their front and depth—the land meach block or square being first fixed in value, after due consideration of its locality and surrounding advantages; but the buildings thereon shall be valued at what it won'd east to erect them at time of appraisement, making due allowance that the commission. time of appraisement, making due allowa for age and decay; but should this commiss for age and decay; but should this commission tail to agree by being equally divided as to the value of any real estate, then the Committee of City Council on Assessment, or any one of them, shall be an unpir; therein, beyond which there shall be no appeal but by written statement of grievance, sworn to before a magistrate, to be submitted to the Mayor and Council for their consideration, whose decision shall be final in all such cases.

4th. The said commissioners shall enter in consideration, whose decision shall be final in all suob cases.

Ath. The said commissioners shall enter in a book prepared for that purpose by the city assessor, the number of each lot, the dimensions thereof as to front and depth, and kind of house or building thereon, if any, whether of brick or of wood, and the number of stones high, and the appraised value thereof.

5. 5th. The number assigned to each piece, parcel or lot of land in this city, and affixed by said commissioner, shall be the number by which each person, making returns hereafter, shall designate overy such piece, parcel or lot of land; which returns shall also truly show, as per title, the front and depth of lot, and kind of house or building thereon, if any, or forfeit like coal of such true discovery as shall be obtained from archives of real estate; and each and every person or persons in charge of any real property in this city, whether as actual owner, guardian, trustee, executor, representative at law or otherwise concerned to respond therefor, shall, on or before the—day of—next, make just, full and particular return of all such property as may be in such person's accountability, whether it be taxable or not, including all railroid property in lands and buildings, all charitable institutions property in land and buildings, all church and school property may be fully represented in facilitating the object of a complete censue; and the said returns shall serve tor the year 1870, except where property may change owners before the lat day of January, 1870, in which case the fact must be made k own to the assessor on or before the 15th of January, 1870; and every person failing to comply therewith shall be chargeable as is now by law declared, against defaulters in making returns of taxable property.

6th. The pay of said commission shall be at the rate of one-eightieth (1-80) of one per cent upon the appraised value of each ward, to be equally divided between the five commissioners and a recerding clerk to be executed.

6th. The pay of said commission shall be at the rate of one-eightieth (1-80) of one per cent upon the appraised value of each ward, to be equally divided between the five commissioners and a recerding clerk, to be assigned them by the Mayor, the paynent to be made when the whole appraisement of the city is completed, which must be on or before the thirty-first day of December, 1869.

7th. That after the said appraisement shall have been made of the entire real estate of the city, the same shall be published in book form, in addition to which there shall be published an alphabetic list of all taxpayers of the city, so that reference may be conveniently had from the aggregate sum, to the specific item of real estate by figures following each name, same as the number of page preceding, upon which such person may appear as real estate owner, and after real estate, all other taxes shall be entered, following in proper or der of their several captions in accordance with an ordinance to raise supplies, &c.

8th. That a census of the city population shall be taken by a proper person or persons, to be appointed therefor, which census shall show the population of each ward in itself, the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races, and the number of males and females, giving distinction of races,

A FEMALE IMPOSTER .- For some time past a oung, neatly dressed woman has been engaged in awindling our citizens. She would go to a bouse and ask to see the lade of it, and, on her being presented, would request money. which she asserted was to be devoted to rehe wants of a poor sick family—said family always living in an out-of-the-way place and a long distance from the house the impostor was visiting. If the lady of the house enired to know the name of the afflicted famishe would reply that she would not tell it for be world, that it was once a very distinguish a family, and even now, though in poverty. the members would not let it be known that hey were in need, and as an act of kindness she bad determined to solicit aid for them. If the lady of the house had not money, the applicant asked for coffee, tea and sugar. She generally received money or these articles, an with profuse thanks departed. In a certain neighborhood her visits become too frequent, and she was watched. This course led to be being detected in spending the money, or selling the coffee, tea and sugar she obtained for liquor, on which she would get drunk. After spending all of her money she would start on another tour in behalf of the "distinguished family."

The Pilot Question.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

the would have been but an act of justice on the part of the committee to have given to the public too names of those who had been complained of, so as not to have left a matter of such paramenan importance to the public interest to conjecture.

We have, suce our appointment under the Board of the Commissioners of Pibriago, been engaged in the discharge of our daty, and no complaints have reached us of the want of skill and knowledge; but, on the contrary, have received full assurance of our capacity and fit ness from matters of vessels. We regret to intrude upon the public our grievances, but are compelled to do so to avoid the wholesale imputation of the committee on newly appointed State
